CULINARY ARTS

FOLLOW YOUR HEART ... AND YOUR STOMACH.

The crackle of rare-breed pork on the grill. The scent of hand-made cider. The chef’s bellow. There are so many facets to the Culinary Arts, from sourcing the finest, freshest produce from the oceans and the fields, and then the journey that takes it to the plate.
THE ENTRÉE TO YOUR NEW LIFE

When things get hot in the kitchen, embrace the opportunity. It could get messy. It could get a bit crazy. And it will definitely feed your soul.

Keep your knives sharp and your ears open, our latest courses that focus on the Culinary Arts industry are coming soon!
We love doers – the jumpers, climbers, hikers and paddlers. Those who want to lead groups of tourists up mountains, into caves and down rivers. You’re the kind of person who not only loves the outdoors, but has the passion to make a career out of it.
